Close Reading the Literature

Directions: Closely reread the section in the middle of chapter 3 that starts with, "He gazed at the fire for a moment, frowning." Read through Merriman's chant that ends with, "Fire will return, and one go alone." Read each question below, and then revisit the text to find evidence that supports your answer.

1. Merriman tells Will that he is the last of the Old Ones. What, according to the text, is he bound by nature to do?

2. What does it mean to be the Sign-Seeker? What, as explained in the text, must Will find and do?

3. What specific impact does the battle cry have on Will? How does he feel?

4. What does "the Dark is rising" mean? Support your answer with textual evidence.
